If you chose response A in the previous question, provide one or two examples that demonstrate this experience.

Narrative Response:

One of my subordinates was becoming excessively absent and finally failed to show for work and did not call in. I then charged him with AWOL. It was my proposal that he forfeit a days pay rather than being allowed to use accrued leave. This proposal was presented to my supervisor and I was permitted to implement it. I also developed a procedure where the employee, my supervisor and myself had a joint meeting with regard to the problem and made subordinate aware of consequences of his action.

Narrative Response:

I have encountered many applicants who were frustrated at the process and the treatment they might have received. In a reassuring tone, I allowed the applicant to feel entitled to their feelings. I gave them the options that were currently before them thus returning their sense of empowerment and control over their situation.
